Mr. Gerard J. Linehan

Mr. Gerard Linehan has been an integral part of the Randolph High School community for more than nine years. As an interim principal at Randolph High School in 1995, he displayed leadership qualities that helped him become the housemaster in 1997. In August of 1998, he was appointed principal of his beloved high school. Prior to coming to Randolph High School, he had been a social studies teacher and hockey coach at Oliver Ames High School in Easton.

Students frequently sought Mr. Linehan for advice or aid. His work exceeded the boundaries of principal for he was a mentor and a friend to any of us who had the pleasure of knowing him. His sense of humor was comforting, yet never disguised his true compassion for the daily tasks ahead of him. In the nine years of his service at Randolph High School, Mr. Linehan has always tended to the needs of his fellow faculty members. He is loyal to the idea of hard work and based his life on improving others, with no exception, in the Randolph School system.

We'd like to thank Mr. Linehan for the dedication and service he has given us over the past four years. His presence here has assisted the Class of 2005 to reach for the stars, to try harder, and to do good in this world. His charismatic smile has warmed the hearts of the many students and faculty in a way that has affected us all, one way or another.

We are honored that such a wonderful man could enter our lives and shape our futures that hold so much promise and worth. Mr. Linehan has reeled students from the colorless screen into the bright new stage that life holds ahead of us. We thank you, Mr. Linehan for your constant presence in our lives and wish you the very best. You truly are a superstar.

Mr. Robert A. Johnson, Principal

June, 2005

To the Class of 2005,

Congratulations! You have endured large group studies, user fees, and the end of traditional senior homerooms. You have survived the challenge of the MCAS tests, met all of our graduation requirements and experienced the retirement of many beloved faculty members. Nonetheless, your hard work, commitment and determination have resulted in your reaching an important individual milestone - the reception of your diploma. You made it!

As you reflect on your years at Randolph High School, consider the words of American poet and essayist, Ralph Waldo Emerson who wrote "What lies behind us and what lies before us are tiny matters compared to what lies within us." Your accomplishments have shown that you have what it takes within each of you to become successful, productive contributors to our contemporary society.

Personally, I will always have a special fondness for the Class of 2005, the first graduation class of my tenure as principal.

Best of luck and much happiness in all you do. Be great!

Sincerely,

Robert A. Johnson

Mr. Stephen F. Zawatski, Vice Principal

June, 2005

To the Class of 2005,

Congratulations! You have successfully completed your high school education and earned that all important diploma. This accomplishment enables you to open avenues to successful college degrees, careers, and countless opportunities for each and every one of you.

Your high school diploma, in most cases, not only reflects your diligence and hard work, but it also shows the assistance, support, and sacrifices of family members during these past four years. Without their help, reaching the goal of graduation may have been more difficult.

It is now time to put the diploma to work for you. Yes, you have successfully reached one plateau but I would encourage you not to stop there. Examine all opportunities carefully. Pursue your dreams in spite of the obstacles you may encounter. With this determination, I am confident you will attain happiness and success.

Finally, it has been my distinct privilege to have served many of you as both your middle school principal and high school vice principal. I am proud of your accomplishments and I know the education you received in the Randolph Public Schools will provide the foundation for the success you deserve.

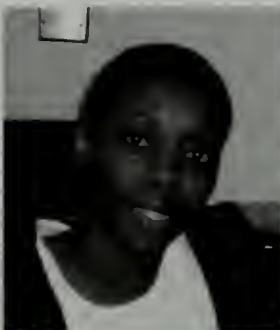

Good luck!

Ms. Michelle K. Stauss, Vice Principal

June, 2005

To the Class of 2005,

Since the beginning of my time at RHS, I have been impressed with your collective spirit-from the first pep rally to the wonderful Winter Concert performance. With the help and support of your families and teachers and because of your hard work during that last few years, you have grown into mature, educated young adults, each with boundless opportunities ahead of you.

Although this is an exciting time, the end of your high school career can bring mixed emotions. You leave RHS with plans to attend college, to practice a trade, to join the armed services, or to begin a personal journey of another kind. Wherever your paths take you, remember that good-byes are not final between good friends and that you can never be too old to learn something new.

Thanks for an fantastic year. I have enjoyed working with you and I wish you success and happiness in all your endeavors.

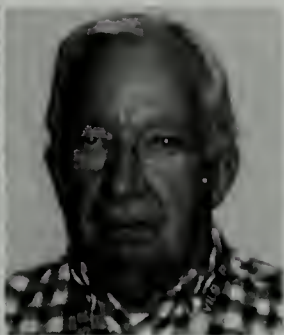

Best wishes!

An abstract graphic design featuring a film strip that runs diagonally from the top left to the bottom right. The film strip has a series of rectangular frames. Scattered across the page are various black geometric shapes, including squares, rectangles, and circles of different sizes. Some of these shapes are solid black, while others are white with black outlines. The text "10,000 FIVE THOUSAND" is integrated into the design. The "10" is large and white with a black outline, and the "000" is also large and white with a black outline. The word "FIVE" is in a smaller, bold, black font. The word "THOUSAND" is in a bold, black font. The word "10" is partially obscured by a large black square. The word "FIVE" is partially obscured by a large black square. Organizations

A Capella Choir

Advisor: Mrs. Dandeneau

The talented members of the A Capella Choir must pass a prerequisite singing and theory test in order to be accepted into the class. Their performances have been as spontaneous as strolling throughout the school singing holiday songs for faculty and students as well as outside local businesses during Music Booster fundraising. The A Capella Choir works diligently at each practice in order to continually exceed the expectations of all it performs for.

Aesthetic Restoration Team (A.R.T.)

Advisor: Mrs. Scoza-McBride

A.R.T. is a group of students who meet on Fridays to paint and restore murals throughout the school. A.R.T. is composed of some amazingly talented artists who spend weeks planning and designing a mural. With every piece of artwork the group creates, they hope to make the school a brighter place and a more positive learning environment.

African-American Club

Advisor: Ms. Wade

The purpose of the African-American Club is to spread awareness of African, African-American, and Caribbean cultures. The club promotes cultural and ethnic diversity, acceptance, tolerance, and enlightenment of our school and community at large. Through this effort, the African American Club hopes to influence the students of RHS in a positive manner.

Amnesty International Club

Advisor: Ms. Ervick

"A letter written is a life saved" is the theme of Amnesty International. The goals of Amnesty International are to help those who are wrongfully punished and to rally against tyranny and oppression. Amnesty International gives liberty and justice to those silenced by despotic governments by contributing numerous letters and petitions to Amnesty International USA. The letters are in turn sent to presidents, government officials and generals. The Amnesty International gives those who have been muted the chance to have a voice to speak and be heard.

Asian Club

Advisor: Ms. Emond

The Asian Club strives to be a cultural resource for Randolph's diverse youth population. The Asian Club endeavors to learn about various cultures and to share this knowledge with others. To spread awareness of other cultures, the Asian Club hosts creative performances every year at Asian Night, an event that has been newly collaborated with the African American Club to form Afrasian Night. Their main goal is to help banish stereotypes by embracing the world community.

Best Buddies

Advisors: Mr. LeClair, Mr. Pillarella, Ms. Rosen

The purpose of Best Buddies is to provide the opportunity for friendships by matching "buddy pairs" between mainstream students and special education students. Students are given the opportunity to make new friends, enjoy new experiences, and have an impact on each others' lives.

Blue and White Banner

Advisor: Ms. Chui

The Randolph Blue and White Banner is made possible through the hard work of dedicated writers and publishers who donate their free time to reporting the news that matters. The newspaper staff this year consists of many active staff members of all grade levels as well as several free-lance writers. In order to produce an edition of the paper, the editors work with one another to ensure that all articles coincide with the Blue and White Banner's reputation of effective news reporting.

Picture Not Available

Chess Club

Advisor: Mr. Morreale

The chess club meet every week to play chess and learn new strategies that will improve their game. Though the chess club is small and seemingly unnoticeable, they are making great strides in recruiting new members and have developed a strong foundation of chess players. Chess is a game that requires much needed concentration and diligence.

Drama

Advisor: Ms. Bellock

The Randolph Drama Club is more than just an average drama club; the Drama Club is a way of life. Drama Club members spend countless hours at rehearsals, theater exercises, and fund-raisers for the purpose of making a "dramatic moment." The Drama Club has involved the entire student body with its love for the stage. The Drama Club not only is a showcase for performers, but those who are artistically and technically inclined.

Environmental Club

Advisor: Mrs. Carter

The RHS Environmental Club works toward promoting awareness of current environmental issues to the school and to the community. The goal of the Environmental Club is to improve the local and global environment. The Environmental Club encourages respect towards nature and the conservation of our natural resources. The club acknowledges the possible consequences of a world without environmental concern and fights to accomplish the difficult goal of informing an often indifferent society.

French Club

Advisor: Mr. Ealden

The French Club strives to promote French culture at Randolph High School. By selling Bon Bons and making crepes, they are bringing a taste of France to Randolph High School. This club consists of a group of students who love and appreciate the language. They also learned to enjoy different aspects of the culture. They work toward the goal of cultural enrichment and improve fluency in foreign languages.

Gay Straight Alliance

Advisor: Ms. St. James

The GSA strives to celebrate diversity, to defuse homophobia, and to break down the walls of intolerance and prejudice by educating the students of RHS on gay, lesbian, and bisexual issues. Although membership is strictly confidential, over the years the GSA has increased its visibility within the school. The GSA meets once a week and welcomes students of every sexual orientation.

Literary Magazine

Advisor: Ms. McNitt

The Literary Magazine seeks to encourage and publish original voices from RHS in poetry, short fiction, and prose. The goal of the Literary Magazine is to publish one or two compilations of student writing per year and to further develop the writing craft of regular members. Young writers are encouraged to develop their strengths and explore new types of writing with which they may be less familiar.

Math Team

Advisor: Mr. Burke

The RHS Math Team competes in the Southeastern Mathematics League, made of twenty-four schools. Randolph has continued its tradition of excellence for the past ten years, placing in the top five schools in the league. The 2004-2005 Math Team strives to continue this streak.

Mock Trial

Advisor: Ms. Prashad

The goal of the Mock Trial Team is to assist students in developing their critical thinking skills, their understanding of the judicial process, and their ability to present themselves in a public and competent manner. The program places students in a simulated courtroom situation where they must assume the roles in a hypothetical case. The team practices for hours all Fall in order to be prepared to compete against other schools in February.

Music (Senior Band & Chorus)

Advisor: Mrs. Dandeneau

The senior band and chorus join everyday to learn the craft of making fine music. With enormous talent, these students have put on many concerts and shows that fellow students, faculty members, and family have come to enjoy. The Randolph High School band and chorus have been recognized by many music programs and have won many festivals over the years. They have been recognized in this school as amazingly talented young people who love to make music.

National Honor Society

Advisor: Ms. Dimascio

Scholarship, leadership, service, and character are the four pillars of the NHS. The NHS conducts monthly service projects to benefit the school and local communities. One of its major contributions is the recycling program conducted weekly within Randolph High School. Other projects include volunteering at the Randolph Halloween Parade, and the Rotary Club's Breakfast with Santa. The program produced for the induction ceremony in May summarizes these events.

Peer Leaders

Advisor: Mrs. Rosen & Mr. Sweeney

The Peer Leaders provide underclassmen with education regarding domestic and teen dating violence. Peer Leaders model positive behaviors, such as good decision making skills and positive behavior both in and out of school. The group has three days of training before conducting two or three sessions of educating students within RHS.

Peer Mediators

Advisor: Mrs. Rosen & Mr. Sweeney

Peer Mediators is students helping students. Peer Mediators are available to help students arrive at a positive solution to their problems, but Peer Mediators are not able to influence any action or give any advice, but to solely lead students in the right direction to resolving their conflict. This is the first year Peer Mediators has been aiding the student body and has promise for a successful future.

Photography Club

Advisor: Mr. Polke

The Photography Club is dedicated to capturing special memories and enhancing their artistic abilities with a camera. Through the use of photography, the club hopes to develop their own individual perspectives of the world around them.

Students Against Destructive Decisions

Advisor: Ms. Burke

The mission of the Students Against Destructive Decisions is to provide students with the best possible tools for prevention and intervention of destructive decision-making regarding drug and alcohol use and driving under the influence. S.A.D.D. members sign a contract to best communicate with others the dangers of these potentially destructive decisions.

Student Academic Leadership Society

Advisor: Ms. Brandt

The Student Academic Leadership Society is composed of freshmen and sophomores who were members of the National Junior Honor Society. The members develop their leadership skills through their various activities designed to help the school and the community. The organization's mission is to provide its members with the necessary experience to meet the criteria in the National Honor Society.

Tomorrow's Teachers Club

Advisor: Mr. LeClair, Mrs. Rosen & Mr. Pillarella

The goal of the Tomorrow's Teacher Club is to prepare students who want to become teachers after college. These students are intelligent and dedicated to the profession and realize the hard work that goes into teaching. This club allows us to see the young, vibrant students who are eager to become teachers. They are influenced by the Randolph High School teachers and want to make a difference in peoples lives.

Yearbook Staff

Advisor: Mrs. Sullivan & Mr. Kaplan

The Oracle, or Randolph High School's yearbook, is a treasured keepsake to all who buy it. To make a yearbook requires much hard work and a dedicated staff. The staff is divided into two parts: The Literary Staff and the Business Staff. The Literary Staff works countless hours laying out pages, taking photographs, and meeting deadlines. The Business Staff is responsible for collecting advertisements, collecting yearbook payments, and meeting all financial deadlines the yearbook has. All together, to work on the Oracle requires much responsibility, and time.

Letters from The Editors

Class of 2005,

Eleanor Roosevelt once said, "You gain strength, courage, and confidence by every experience in which you really stop to look fear in the face. You must do the thing you think you cannot do." Our graduating class of triumphed over all the challenges that life throws our way and we have sweated, cried, and laughed because of it.

Take this yearbook as a token in time to reflect on the crazy years of high school such as the time when the boys cross dressed during Freak Week or when we were busy preparing for a play or performance that never seem to meet our expectations but was always worth it in the end.

It will be a bitter-sweet ending when it is time to say good-bye but the memories made here at Randolph High School will not be forgotten. Take with you the strength, courage, and confidence learned here at RHS to be successful in all your future endeavors. Thank you class of 2005, I love you.

Christina Tan, Layout Editor

Class of 2005,

As each day passes we create new memories by meeting new people, trying new things, and rekindling old friendships. It is by these memories that our high school years will be remembered. Even through the toughest times when you felt under the heat of the spotlight, we perservered and conquered our fear of failure, and achieved our goal of success.

Take what you have accomplished in your time at Randolph High School and use it to the best of your ability and never forget those who helped you reach those accomplishments. Always use this book as a momentum of the smilies, the tears, the triumphs, and even the failures. When in search of inspiration remember to look back on the days past and live for the moment and enjoy each and every one.

Thank you to the class of 2005 for making every moment worthwhile. Your impact on my life and education is greatly appreciated. I wish you the greatest of success in your future endeavors and will certainly miss my days here at Randolph High School.

James Shea, Editor-in-Chief

Student Council

Advisor: Mr. Boyd

The Student Council is a student government organization with the members who are re-elected by popular vote by each candidate's class. In addition to those elected by popular vote, there are members appointed to the council due to outstanding leadership qualities. Ex-officio members include class officers, representatives of the school committee, and regional and state officers. The mission of the Student Council is to represent the student body, to promote spirit within the school, and to perform community service within our community and surrounding communities. The members of the Student Council learn valuable leadership skills from one another and through training that will be valuable in the future. Randolph High School Student Council is one of the most prestigious councils in the state. This is a hard-working, dedicated group that has worked hard to benefit the school and the community.

If

by Rudyard Kipling

If you can keep your head when all about you
Are losing theirs and blaming it on you;
If you can trust yourself when all men doubt you,
But make allowance for their doubting too:
If you can wait and not be tired by waiting,
Or, being lied about, don't deal in lies,
Or being hated don't give way to hating,
And yet don't look too good, nor talk too wise;

If you can dream --- and not make dreams your master;
If you can think --- and not make thoughts your aim,
If you can meet with Triumph and Disaster
And treat those two imposters just the same:
If you can bear to hear the truth you've spoken
Twisted by knaves to make a trap for fools,
Or watch the things you gave your life to, broken,
And stoop and build 'em up with worn-out tools;

If you can make one heap of all your winnings
And risk it on one turn of pitch-and-loss,
And lose, and start again at your beginnings,
And never breath a word about your loss:
If you can force your heart and nerve and sinew
To serve your turn long after they are gone,
And so hold on when there is nothing in you
Except the Will which says to them: "Hold on!"

If you can talk with crowds and keep your virtue,
Or walk with Kings --- nor lose the common touch,
If neither foes nor loving friends can hurt you,
If all men count with you, but none too much:
If you can fill the unforgiving minute
With sixty seconds' worth of distance run,
Yours is the Earth and everything that's in it,
And --- which is more --- you'll be a Man, my son!
